Performing Arts (PA)

PA 003 Film Appreciation (3)

Class Hours: 54 Lecture
Transfers to: UC/CSU

Film Appreciation

PA 003 looks at the cinema as a 20th century art form. Students will view historically and artistically significant films in class and learn how to critique them. Students will also develop an understanding of both the artistic and technical aspects of film as well as the business and politics of the film industry.

PA 022 Theater Workshop (4)

Class Hours: 36 Lecture | 108 Laboratory
Transfers to: UC/CSU

Theater Workshop

PA 022 is the presentation of a full length production before a public audience. Students will learn work readiness skills integrated as a part of the intense disciplined rehearsal process of a dramatic production. Students will specialize in either acting, technical theatre, design, costumes or public relations while working with the director and designers to create a production/performance team. This course is only offered during the summer.

PA 023 Chicano Theater (3)

Class Hours: 36 Lecture | 54 Laboratory
Transfers to: UC/CSU

Chicano Theater

PA 023 is a form of theatre which expresses the culture and identity of the Chicano through development of self expression. This course will give the student a basic introduction to the working ideology and methodology of El Teatro Campesino. PA 23 will introduce the student to some acting techniques and Chicano/Latino dramatic works. The course will also illustrate the present reality of the Chicano way of life throughout the stage production.

PA 025 Theater Dance (1)

Class Hours: 9 Lecture | 27 Laboratory
Transfers to: UC/CSU

Theater Dance

PA 025 provides instruction in basic modern, jazz and folkloric dance techniques for the performing arts.