Communication Studies 2.0 AA-T Degree

The Associate of Art for Transfer in Communication Studies 2.0 is designed to provide students a seamless transfer to the California State University system. The degree is designed to prepare students for a baccalaureate degree in Communication Studies or similar major.

The AA-T in Communication Studies 2.0 offers broad-based preparation in effective oral and written communication, presentation, and debate as well as a foundation in group dynamics and interpersonal relationships. The degree is designed to provide entry-level skills and knowledge for those students who simply want to improve their marketability with potential employers. The degree prepares students in the main skills employers look for in potential employees: the ability to effectively communicate both orally and in writing and to effectively work in groups and/or teams.

Program student learning outcomes:

1. Students will speak in an understandable and organized fashion to explain their ideas, concepts and express their feelings.
2. Students will listen actively and respectfully to analyze the substance of others' comments and materials.
3. Students will utilize different forms of research materials.
4. Students will demonstrate effective argumentation by formulating written and/or oral arguments that are free of errors in reasoning.
5. Students will perform a variety of verbal and nonverbal skills to bring literature to life and heighten the effectiveness of the performer's message.

Students must meet the following requirements to qualify for an Associates for Transfer Degree (ADT):

- Complete 60 semester units or 90 quarter units that are eligible for transfer to the California State University (CSU), including both of the following:
- The Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) or the California State University General Education (CSU GE) Breadth Requirements
- A minimum of 18 semester units or 27 quarter units in a major or area of emphasis, as determined by the community college district.
