Dear Friend of West Hills College,

As the year draws to a close, we want to update you on some of the wonderful things happening at West Hills and ask for your continued support in the future. The following pages are photo highlights from what has been an amazing year.

Our vision at West Hills is "The relentless pursuit of student success" with a mission of empowering students, faculty, staff and the communities we serve to reach their full potential academically, socially and economically. Please join us in this vision and mission by supporting the West Hills activity of your choice. A list of needs is included on the enclosed card or donate at <http://westhillscollge.com/donate>.

Thank you for your support and our best wishes for a wonderful holiday season.

2014

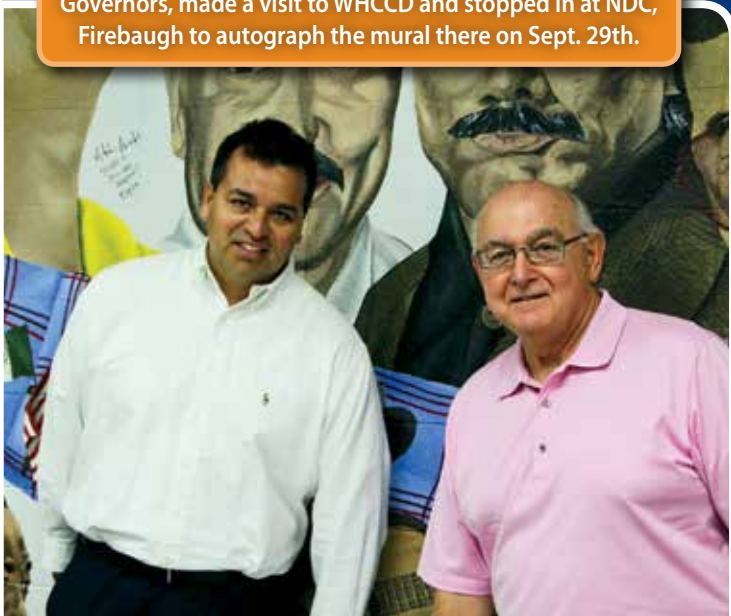

Here are some of our accomplishments

WEST HILLS COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT

More than 110 President's Scholars now attend WHC and many of them participated in a television commercial shoot last summer.

Arnoldo Avalos, a newly appointed member of the statewide California Community Colleges Board of Governors, made a visit to WHCCD and stopped in at NDC, Firebaugh to autograph the mural there on Sept. 29th.

The WHCC Falcons beat Yuba College 24-14 to win the NCFC American Division Bowl and end the season with a 10-1 record.

More than 978 degrees and certificates were awarded at WHCC and WHCL —up 65 percent from 2008-2009.

The WHCC football team hosted a spring break camp for local youth.

WHCL's registered nurse program has grown significantly and boasts of the highest success rate in California for those taking the registered nurse license exam.

WHCC rodeo coach Bruce Hunt retired after 30 years as the winningest coach in college rodeo. Justin Hampton has taken over the reins.

Victor Davis Hanson was one of many distinguished speakers during the Essential Elements Series hosted by WHCCD.

Operation Awareness at WHCL allows students to learn about disabilities.

Coalinga area elementary students attended a week-long Chevron-sponsored science camp at WHCC this summer.

A new paramedic training program has been added to the curriculum at WHCL.

An annual art show at WHCC features the work of student artists.

Over 380 years of service were logged by last summer's class of WHCCD retirees.
